

FEAR MY THOUGHTS

FEAR MY THOUGHTS BIOGRAPHY

The band FEAR MY THOUGHTS was originally founded in 1998. Founding members were Patrick (guitar and former member of PARRACIDE, who released a split-cd with the well known metal-act EVEREVE), Lex (drums), Bart (bass) and Matt (voice). Later on Markus (guitar) joined the band. With only one real line up change, the band tried early to combine all the musical influences and the individual experiences the members gathered. The self released first mini cd "sapere aude" Already showed the bands amazing musical talent and their courage to experiment with different sounds.

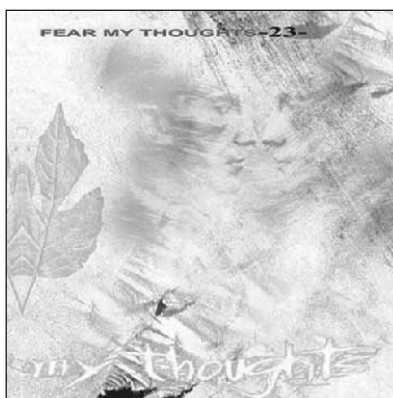

The band decided to team up with the most promising new European record label of that time LET IT BURN RECORDS, who released "23" (LiB 003), their first full length record in March 2001. The release marked the musical direction the band was heading to. A breathtaking mixture of swedish death metal, chaotic and technical hardcore a la CONVERGE / DILLINGER ESCAPE PLAN and emotional, melodic influences of bands like SHAI HULUD or RADIOHEAD. The record was a big success and an endless number of shows, including a full European tour followed.

The highly acclaimed "23" was followed by the band's second full length record "Vitriol" (LiB 007) which was released through LET IT BURN RECORDS in May 2002. The intoxicating concept album demonstrates that FEAR MY THOUGHTS has grown to be one of the most talented and technical most perfect bands in the metal / hardcore scene. "Vitriol" also shows the band's unbelievable skills for stunning, emotional melodies and harmonies. The band was also very proud to have the guest-appearance of ex-DESTRUCTION-vocalist on "Vitriol".

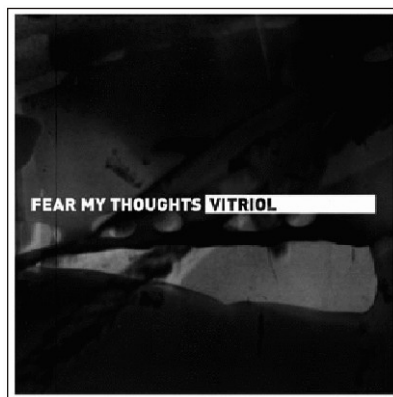

Until today the band has played almost 200 shows all over Europe including 3 full tours (one with HEROD from the US). The band has shared the stage with artists such as Dillinger Escape Plan, Caliban, Catharsis, Killwitch Engage, Shadows Fall, Terror, Shai Hulud, The Icarus Line, Shora, Cataract and numerous more, including performances at some of the biggest European hardcore festivals (Ieper Fest, Goodlife Fest, Fluff Fest, Pressure Festival, etc.).

Both records "23" and the "Vitriol" recieved fantastic reviews in magazines all over the world, ranging from small DIY-fanzines to big metal-magazines like HAMMER (6 of 7 points) or LEGACY-magazine (14 of 15 points).

In 2003 FEAR MY THOUGHTS decided to part ways with LET IT BURN RECORDS, ready to take the next big step. They followed an offer by Europe's leading metalcore label LIFEFORCE RECORDS (distributed by VICTORY RECORDS in the US) and released their amazing new record "The great collapse". There is no question: FEAR MY THOUGHTS will soon belong to the best known metalcore bands in the world. Their unique combination of melodic death metal, heartbreaking melodies and highly technical elements has created them a league of their own.
